

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, December 13. 1705.

From the Paris Gazette, dated December 12.

Madrid, November 25.

LE T T E R S are come from the Count de Monclova Viceroy of Peru : They are dated the 28th of January, and import, that Don Alonso Juan de Valdes Governour of Buenos Aires, having Besieg'd the Portuguese in the Colony of the Holy Sacrament, kept the Place so closely block'd up, that he did not doubt to be Master of it in a little Time, having taken a Ship and 4 other Vessels that had on Board Men, Arms, and Ammunition for the said Colony, on which Occasion 30 Portuguese were kill'd and the rest taken Prisoners. We are inform'd by Letters of a fresher Date from Portugal, and from Holland, that the Portuguese Governour of the said Colony having Capitulated, was conducted with his Garrison to Rie-Janeyro.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Dec. 12.

Rome, November 21. An extraordinary Congregation has been held upon the Account transmitted from Ferrara of the dreadful Ravages made by the overflowing of the Rivers, which have laid a great Extent of Country under Water, and done great Damage to the Town of Ferrara. The Pope to relieve the People, has eas'd them of several Imposts, and has order'd that the Summs arising by other Imposts be employ'd in the necessary Repairs of the Diques, &c. that are broken by the Floods. They write from Naples, that Count Herberstein General of the Galleys of Malta, had landed there to make a Visit to the Viceroy, and was receiv'd by him with great Honour ; and that he is since sail'd over to Sicily where the rest of the Galleys of Malta waited for him. The Banditi have been so hotly pursued by Order of the Viceroy of Naples, that not one Troop of them appears at present : Some of them made their Escape towards Benevento, but 'tis hop'd they will soon be reduc'd. From Palermo 'tis advis'd, that the Marquis de Bedmar Viceroy of Sicily, had issued such good Orders for extirpating the Robbers and Banditi which infested the Roads of that Kingdom, that several of them have been apprehended ; and 15 were hang'd in one Day. The Cardinal del Giudice Archbishop of Montreal, has receiv'd Order from the King of Spain to repair to Rome.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Dec. 15.

Milan, December 1. Prince Eugene of Savoy had caus'd the Imperial Troops to canton in Montechiaro, Gavardo, and other Places of the Bressan between the Chiese and the Lake of Garda, as if he design'd to Winter there. But a Report is spread that he has drawn them together agen, and is marching with all Expedition towards the Mincio : The Duke of Vendome has been joyn'd by the Reinforcement he expected from Piemont, and no doubt has a watchful Eye to the Motions of the Imperialists.

From the Amsterdam Gaz. dated Dec. 15.

Warsaw, November 27. Eighteen Articles of the Treaty between the King of Sweden and the Republick of Poland are absolutely agreed upon on both Sides : But as for the Demand made by the Polish Commissioners, that Contributions should cease, the King of Sweden has given them to understand that the indispensible Occasions of his Army would not permit him to comply with that Demand : 'Tis talk'd however his said Majesty will order his own Commissaries to forbear levying Contributions, and leave it to Commissaries of the Confederates to furnish his Troops with Provisions.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Dec 15.

Liege, Dec. 11. We have Intelligence from the Enemy's Frontiers, that a Detachment of 6000 Men is march'd from the Netherlands for Spain. And that Preparations are made at Namur for executing some Design, which 'tis thought is form'd against Huy ; but all Precautions needful are taken for the Security of that Place. 'Tis reported the Enemy have mark'd out a new Line from Louvain to Wavre ; whereupon our Garrison and all the Troops that are quarter'd in our Neighbourhood, are order'd to hold themselves in a Readyness to march at any Hour. Yesterday General Salisch our Governour, view'd all the Posts and Avenues hereabouts, and declar'd that whatever Officer of the several Corps de Garde appointed to watch, shall be wanting to his Duty, he shall be try'd by a Council of War and punish'd with the utmost Rigour.

Falmouth, December 3. To Day Sail'd the Godolphin Pacquet-Boat with two Mails and an Express for Lisbon.

Farmouth, December 10. On Saturday last we had a violent Storm, Wind at E. N. E. which drove several Corn Ships Westward, and and drove 5 Ships belonging to this Town on shore, most of which were stranded and broke in Pieces ; we have an Account also that 2 Hoxys, one of them belonging to London the other to Greenwich, that were laden with Corn, ran ashore near Leasoff ; the Master and Boy of one of them were drown'd : The Men of War here lost several of their Anchors, but rode out the Storm. There is come in a Dutch Ship to lade Her-rings.

Harwich, December 11. On Sunday the Dispatch Packet-Boat arriv'd with a Mail from Holland ; the Dolphin Packet-Boat is sail'd with 2 Mails for Holland, the Prince Packet-Boat which sail'd with another, was put back by stormy Weather here ; as was also a Rotterdamer. The Diligence Brigantine and Ferret Sloop are sail'd with 2 Russia Ships for Portsmouth.

Deale, December 11. The Winds being abated we find that the Welcome Galley, Jubille Galley, Falcon Galley, Anne Galley, and the Mary Sloop are blown from their Anchors and gone Westward out of the Downs ; we do not find any other Ships are wanting that were here before the Storm ; except Coasting Vessels whose Names we have not. All the Men of War rode out the Storm. The Torbay that was blown to the Westward from Margate Roads is come into the Downs, as is a large Ship bound to Virginia nam'd the Leortt, that was also in Margate Roads.

London, December 13.

The Britannia was blown to Sea by the Stormy Wind last Saturday Night ; and is not yet come into Port.
